SUNDAY-SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.

Interesting Exercises at the Citadel Square Baptist Church-The Singing, Speeches and Presentation of Prizes.

The anniversary exercises of the Citadel Square Baptist Church Sunday-school were held yesterday afternoon, though they may be said to have begun in the morning, as the pastor, Rev. E. T. Winkler, D. D., read during the morning service the annual report of the able and efficient superintendent, John G: Milnor, Esq. The report refers to the conversion of three of the scholars during the year, and the death of one, and also alludes very feelingly to the death of Deacon W. S. Henerey, one of the officers of the school. The school consists of four officers, nine male teachers, twelve female teachers, eighty-five male scholars. one hundred and one female scholars. Total of teachers and scholars, two hundred and eleven. There has also been added to the library of the school, during the past year, over five hundred volumes, at a cost of two hundred and sixty-four dollars and eighty-six cents. A statement was also made of the clothing fund, showing a balance on hand in the hand; of the treasurer of twenty-eight dollars and ninety-five cents.

At five o'clock P. M., the children and teachers, together with the parents and members of the congregation, and a large concourse of friends anxious to witness the interesting exercises, assembled in the spacious church. The services began by the singing by the school of the hymn "Bless the Lord, O my Soul." The singing was accompanied by the piano, played by Miss Cuthbert, and the whole conducted by Wm. Thayer, Esq., whose thorough acquaintance with and love of music eminently qualify him as the instructor of the children in singing the beautiful song s of Zion. The singing was particularly sweet, and the scholars exhibited the results of thorough training. All of the songs selected were very beautiful and appropriate, and they were sung with a precision and life which spoke volumes for their instructor, and showed that their little hearts were full of the praise they sung. After an opening prayer by Dr. Winkler, and the singing of the second hymn, the Scripture lesson for the day was read by the pastor, the children and teachers uniting in the responses. The lesson was taken from 2 Kings, 24: 10 - 16.

Then followed the salutatory address by Master W. C. Miller, who, though with one arm in a sling, extended a very graceful welcome to all. Next was sung the beautiful hymn, "Our Bright Home Above," after which Master R. Hall Tupper delivered an address upon the impertance of Truth. After singing the next hymn, "The Bright Forever," Masters The Smith Wilbur and W. Cuttino Wilbur spoke in a dialogue, entitled "Step in the right direction." "The Angels in the Air" having been then sung, little Master Edwin Winkler recited Leigh Hunt's beautiful little poem, "Abou Ben Adhem," with fine effect. The next hymn was "My Sabbath Home," then Master F. L. Meyer delivered an address "To Parents and Friends. Next followed "That Beautiful Land," succeeded by an address from Master Cornellus Wink. ler, whose subject was, "You may pay too dear for your Whistle." This closed the addresses on the part of the scholars, all of whom acquitted themselves well, and gave great promise of becoming good men and eloquent speakers, whether at the bar, in legis a tive halls, or in the pulpit. The distribution of prizes followed the addresses. The superinendent first delivered two prizes, which had been offered by two friends of the church to the teachers of the class of male and female scholars respectively which should make the largest contributions to the benevolent object of the school. These prizes were awarded to Mr. D. Mustard, whose class had contributed sixteen dollars, and to Mrs. E. M. Miller, whose little class of girls had contributed twelve dol-

The young men's Bible class, taught by Mr Wm. G. Wnilden, and the young ladies' Bible class, taught by Colonel Zimmerman Davis, have together contributed about one hundred dollars during the year, but they were not contestants for these prizes. Mrs. Miller was also been late once, and only absent a few Sabbaths from sickness. To the only teacher who was never absent or late one Sabbath in the year, Mr. M. L. Almar, a handsome prize was also awarded. The superintendent then presented a bandsome edition of Wordsworth's poems to Miss Eila Gantt, given by her teacher as a prize for punctuality and regular attendanceher absence during the epidemic causing her to fall in receiving the necessary number of tickets to entitle her to a prize according to the terms imposed for the whole school- Then began the distribution of prizes to all those who had been present at the opening of the school for forty-five Sabbaths, or more, during the year. In the male department the following were the recipients: Thomas Smith Wilbur, W. Cuttino Wilbur, James A. Dixon, Rob ert A. Wilbur, Herbert Wilbur, Hall L. Bissell. Orville Bissell, W. C. Miller, Moultrie Goddard, James E. Goddard and Edward McTureous In the female department the reliplents were Misses Lula M. Wilbur, Mary Aimar, Eva Shokes, Mary Shokes, Mary J. Dallas, Ammie Smith, Martha Desportes, Cornella Desportes. Eveline Sweeney and Flora McIver. Thirteen little girls and eight little boys, in the infant class, also received suitable prizes for good behavier, upon the recommendation of their teacher. The superintendent took occasion to refer to the marked punctuality of the four little Masters Wilbur and their sister, Miss Lula.

The distribution of the prizes by the superintendent having been concluded, Colonel Duvia took him completely by surprise by presenting him, in behalf of the teachers and scholars of the school, with a handsome silver goblet and salver, for his faithful discharge of the operous duties of superintendent for the past four years. In the course of his remarks Colonel Davis mentioned the fact that during the whole period of four years Mr. Milnor had never once been late in attendance. No wonder that such punctuality on the part of the superintendent should result in such a model school.

The goblet is of massive sliver, handsomely engraved, lined with gold, and bearing the following inscription : "Citadel Square Baptist Church Sunday-school to John G. Milnor. superintendent, 1872." On the handsome salver, which accompanied the gobiet, are engraved the initials J. G. M., in German text. The closing hymn, "Peace on Earth," was then sung with fine effect by the children of the school, and a benediction by the Rev. Dr. Winkler terminated the highly interesting ex-

SCOTT ON THE RAMPAGE. - About ten o'clock on Saturday night considerable excitement was occasioned at the corner of Woolfe and Meeting streets by several shots fired in quick succession, which, on investigation, were found to proceed from the pistol of a sable bacchanalian named R. M. Scott. This lively youth and his companion, A. Ancrum, were both fast succambing beneath the effects of their potations, but managed to abuse the policeman who came up to arrest them, and threatened his life with the pistol. Clubs and Stars, however, did his duty, and both of these disturbers of the peace were soon snoring peacefully in their cells at the Guardhouse. and dreaming that the Mayor had complimented them for their good behavior and dis-

RADICAL MEETING .- Mr. R. S. Tharin will deliver a speech from the City Hall steps, tomor ow evening at eight o'clock. Subject, The Past, Present and Future of South Caro-

BASE BALL,-A match game was played on Saturday afternoon, at the west end of Broad street, between the Chicora and Excelsion Base Ball Clubs. The Cuicoras were victorious by a score of nineteen to nine.

IN THE WRONG POCKET .- A. P. Judohn, colored youth, was detected yesterday afternoon in a store at the corner of Pitt and Duncan streets, with his hand in Thomas Maxwell's pocket, from which he was extracting certain greenbacks. Judohn was turned over to the police and lodged in the Guardhouse.

CELESTIAL FASHIONS -A magnificen meteor flamed along the western sky about ten o'clock on Saturday night. The trail was long and brilliant, and lit up the heavens for several seconds. The stranger wore a star on her head, and her train was a most exaggerated and unquestionable Dolly Varden.

DELINQUENT TAX SALES .- The sale of real estate on account of taxes due was resumed on Saturday morning. Two buildings belonging to C. Vauderhorst, to wit: No. 5 Dereef's court and No. 58 Morris street, were offered, and there being no bids, knocked down to the State for the taxes, $15 23 on the first and $18 38 on the second. The sale was but poorly attended and there was no bidding. To-day the sales will be continued, beginning at the letter W.

CAMPSEN'S FLOUR MILLS-N. V SOUTHERN FLOUR .- This excellent establishment, so convenient to our citizens for the purchase of tresh-ground and high-classed flour, is now turning out a double-extra quality, ground from new South Carolina wheat. The very superior crop of this grain raised in the South the present season will enable purchasers to secure an article of high standard, the product of wheat grown near home, and which can be relied upon for its purity and good baking qualities. The above mill, while employing home labor and adding to local prosperity, is one of many forms of industry which it is well to encourage and sustain.

THE CHARLESTON JOINT STOCK COMPANY. In the official advertisement in Saturday's News of the numbers drawn in Friday's raffle of the Charleston Joint Stock Company, the number 62 appeared erroneously in Class No. The numbers should have read as follows CLASS No. 5-FRIDAY MORNING, June 21.

54-63-22-36-8-24-34-16-70-19-77-58 CLASS No. 6-FRIDAY EVENING, June 21. 71-16-2-27-44-55-46-19-72-41-73-35 This enterprise is now in complete working order, and its inauguration was celebrated last Saturday evening by a very pleasant supper party at Tully's. PALMETTO STREET .- The lower end of this lovely little street is the chosen place where the freedmen, just landed from the country in their boats, with produce, &c., love to congregate and talk over the state of the market, chaffer, buy and sell. On Saturday nights it is peculiarly lively, owing to the unusual influx of visitors to make their purchases for Sunday. It was crowded last Saturday evening. Trade was brisk, and everything went well until one of the men was struck by some one in the dark, and began to hit out blindly in the direction of the blow. A free fight ensued, which resulted in the intervention of the police and the capture of A. McElvaney and James Davis. STABBING AFFRAY ON MOUNT PLEASANT .-

On Friday night last, an affray occurred in the Village of Mount Pleasant, between Messrs. Furman Gregory and Marion Ross, in which the latter was severely it not fatally stabbed. It seems that the two young men, who are both well known residents of the village, had some small difficulty about money matters, and on the evening in question Gregory had asked Ross to pay him some money wh latter owed him. A quarrel ensued, and Ross assailed Gregory with his fists. The latter Ross in the left side of the neck, near the hollow of the clavicle, inflicting a small but deep wound. Thus ended the fight, and Ross was quickly taken to a house where medical assistance was rendered him. During Saturday and yesterday he was lying in a critical condition, but hopes are entertained that he will survive the wound. Last night his condition was much the same as on Saturday and Sunday.

ACCIDENT AT ORANGEBURG -- A MAN RUN OVER BY THE CARS .- On Friday night, as the down train on the South Carolina Railroad was passing through Orangeburg, Sam. Mitchel, allas July, a colored dwarf, while attempting to jump upon the train fell upon the track, and had his right leg crushed, and the toes of his left foot badly mashed by the car wheels. July had just got out of the Penitentiary, where he had been serving out his sentence after having been convicted of robbing Mr. Happoldt's store, and on his way down had stopped in Orangeburg a few days. On Friday night he was going to the depot to take the train but it moved off while he was on the way, and he ran down the main street to head it. As it passed he made a jump for the car-steps, but missed his aim and caught one railing of each car. He hung so for some time, but being unable to get up, he tried to throw himself back, and in doing this fell upon the track and was injured as above stated. He was brought to the city, and on Saturday was taken to the City Hospital. His right leg was amputated just below the knee by the surgeon, Dr. J. S. Buist, and four of the toes of his left foot were also taken off. He is now doing well. July is the able-bodied dwarf with legs about the shape and length of a bull's horns, who was well known as a "spot boy" and hanger-on of the detective office during the Pillsoury administration. It was while he was in the dectective office that the frequent burglaries upon Mr. Happoldt's establishment occurred, and July was employed to find out the thief. This was of course, never done, until one of his pals told on July, who proved to be one of the prime robbers, and was afterwards tried and convicted of the offence.

THE WRONG TREE.-A sergeant and a squad of soldiers made a descent on the house of Dr. Avery, of York, last week, thinking that he had returned home. They searched the house, but came to the conclusion that it was all a false alarm. It is now known that the Canada kidnappers, when they captured Dr. Bratton, thought they had secured Dr. Avery.

THE COURTS.-There was no business transacted in the United States Court on Saturday. Judge Bryan has returned to the city, and court will be held as usual this morning.

In the Common Pleas Judge Graham heard a few motions and granted orders of no public interest on the equity side. The court meets at ten o'clock this morning, and the following cases are fixed for trial: Johnson, Crews & Co. vs. Goodwin & Co.; Brown vs. Kirkpatrick & Witte; Dobbin vs. Epping; Martin vs. Holland; Bernard vs. Crimmall; Pritchard, trustee, vs. Irby; Conner vs. Hough, Clendening & Co.; Dowling & Co. vs. Padget.

the police, were each fined one dollar. They grumbled and paid up. Isaac Washington, found trespassing upon the plazza of a citizen in Tradd street, apparently with an eye to business, was discharged, no prosecutor appearing against him. The estrays consisted of seven goats, a hound and a pointer, upon which fines to the amount of five dollars and fifty cents were collected from the owners.

THE SAVANNAH SCHUTZENFEST closed on Friday evening, when a number of additional prizes were awarded, viz:

A. Thieme, pair of boots and pair of pants; Charles Werner, box of Havana cigars; George A. Gemenden, a five dollar gold plece; Ferdinand Franz, a cask of rice; Petr Schafer, one barrel of flour; Julius Kanfman half a dozen silk socks; J. scholl, two fine b .om shirts; A. Basier, a meerschaum pipe in a shell; Charles Wescott, box of handkerchlets; J. Herschbach, pair of fine galters; P. Cornell, a silk scarf and two silk handkerchies; J. Keyser, a barrel of etroleum oli.

President Elsinger made a handsome speech. complimenting the Schutzen and their first king, Mr. Karl Werner. Miss Schlamm placed the chain and medal over the neck of the king, to whom Mayor John O. Ferriil presented a silver-mounted Derringer.

The festival was highly successful. Three hundred and thirty-one dollars was taking in at the dancing pavilion and twelve hundred dollars at the gates. PONCE DE LEON SPRING AND THE KIMBALL Hou-E.-This delightful summer resort, located at Atlanta, Georgia, is again open for the season, and offers advantages to the tourist, the pleasure-seeker and invalid, which are in no way inferior to those of the most boasted Northern watering places. The curaive properties of the Ponce de Leon water are highly spoken of by those who have had an opportunity to test their efficiency, and the hotel is certainly one of the most commodious and elegant in the whole country. It has the "safety passenger elevator," patented by Otls, Tufts & Co., by means of which the guest, desiring to reach his apartment on an upper ory, has merely to step in and be seated in a cozy and elegantly furnished room, which straightway ascends without visible agency undrew a pocket-knife, and in the dark stabbed til the desired location is reached. It has also a capacious and handsome ball-room, a billiard room especialy for ladies, elegant parlors and suites of anariments, and every appointment of a modern and first-class hotel. A band of music has also been engaged for the season, and hops will be given every evening in the grand saloon.

> EXCURSION BY MOONLIGHT .- The Pioneer Steam Fire Engine Company had an excur sion on Friday night around the harbor, on the steamer St. Helena. The members, with a large number of invited guests, among whom the fair sex were well represented, left Market Wharf on the steamer at eight o'clock, with Beck's Brass Band on board. After s short trip on the water the party landed at Mount Pleasant, where the large dancing hall was cleared and lit up, and, with the aid of their fine band, the party spent two pleasant hours in the enjoyment of the dance. Again embarking on the steamer, they moved swiftly from point to point about the harbor, from within a stone's throw of the Battery to the broad harbor mouth beyond Fort Sumter. The weather was charming, the moonlight divine and the music delicious, and with "youth at the prow and pleasure at the helm," the excursionists glided on over the sparkling water until the approaching hours of morning warned them to turn towards home. At two o'clock A. M. on Saturday they landed at the wharf after the pleasantest of excursions, and highly grateful to Captain Christian, of the steamer, for his courtesy and attention to the convenience of his guests. Meetings This Day.

The Dally Bulletin says: There is rather a bet-The Daily Bulletin says: There is rather a better feeling in the hay trade. Receipts are less liberal and there is a light inquiry for shipping, which imparts a steadier tone, and the majority of dealers seem to be of the opinion that bottom has been reached. We quote shipping North River per 100 ibs at $1 15at 20.

New York Rice Market.

NEW YORK, June 22.
The Dally Bulletin says: Domestic stock con The Daily Builetin says: Domestic stock continues firm, with a tendency on the higher grades toward an advance, as the supply immediately available is moderate, and ouvers appear to be taking very fair amounts daily. Foreign moves to some extent, but the demand is not large as compared with the stock on hand, and though refusing to name any further concession, or to offer an amount of goods in excess of the outlet, holders are pretty willing operators at about former figures. Sales to-day of 150 bags Rangoon at 6%a7%c; 300 common do at 6%; 125 bags Patna at 7%, and 25 tierces Carolina at 9a9%c.
